

Free State Project Trading Medallion

Metal: .999 fine silver Size: 39mm Weight: One Troy Ounce

Finish: Proof-Like

Projected Production: 50,000 of 2009 edition

Proceeds Benefit: Free State Project.

Design Specifications: The obverse displays the official seal of the Free State Project including the icon of the porcupine and the words “Free State Project – Liberty in Our Lifetime”. The reverse includes the outline of New Hampshire overlaid with the text “The maximum role of government is the protection of life, liberty and property”. This side also includes the Free State Project web site URL: “freestateproject.org” along with the weight and quality of the medallion.

Marketing Target: The Free State project boasts 9585 members with 744 already relocated to the state. According to officials with the Project, many of these relocated members are currently active in alternative trading. The Project is the backdrop and frequently referred to by one of YouTube’s most-watched reporters, Dave Ridley, in his regular Ridley Report series boasting thousands of subscribers and persistent viral status.

The target for this piece is the in-state membership and nationwide supporters as well as all liberty-minded individuals who should be exposed to this precedent-setting experiment in freedom.

Variations: There are no variations of this piece at this time.

Recommended Retail Price: It is recommended that this piece be offered at $25.